

Thank you for your interest in providing an adoptive home to an equine from MHARF. To ensure that our animals are only adopted out to suitable homes (and to save potential adopters the stress and trouble of adopting a horse that does not work out for them), we do have a number of requirements for the approval process. We strive to make the best possible horse/adopter match so that we can make this the most positive experience for people and animals alike. Attached you will find a copy of our Adoption Guidelines. Please note that these are simply guidelines and that we may be able make exceptions on a case-by-case basis depending on the individual animal. After you have read through the guidelines, please email the following information to info@mnhoovedanimalrescue.org:

Name, address, telephone number(s)

A short introduction to yourself: experience level, what type of riding you do or will be hoping to do, how many other animals you own, whether you keep your animals at home or board at another facility (if you use a boarding facility we will need the info and pics for that facility), whether you will be working with a trainer (recommended if you are a new horse owner/rider or if the horse is young and/or green), whether you have adopted from a rescue organization before, whether you know anyone who has adopted from MHARF in the past, and who you use as a veterinarian and as a farrier.

Is there a particular equine you are interested in? If you don't have one in mind, what type of equine are you searching for?

In what situation would an adopted equine be kept (for example: stabled with turn out, pasture w/ shelter, with how many other equines, etc.)?

Current photographs of your facility or the boarding facility you plan to use: Fencing (all types your horse would come into contact with) and gates, barn/stalls, pastures/paddocks (including shelters), feeders, water source, hay storage and supply, other animals on the property, indoor/outdoor arena and round pen (if applicable).

Once again, thank you for your interest in giving a rescued equine the chance at a permanent, loving home! If you have any questions about adoption guidelines and requirements, or any questions on a particular equine, please email us at info@mnhoovedanimalrescue.org. We look forward to hearing from you!
